

Karma represents a new wave of oriental fine dining with the creation of Japanese & Chinese Fusion Cuisine.

Karma creates a unique dining experience by combining an open dining area and sushi bar delicately balanced in a traditional atmosphere created by a feng shui master.

The Fusion Cuisine showcases culinary inventiveness by offering modern Japanese and Chinese entrees and a vast, flavorful, pleasing array of sushi like no other. A soothing ambience is created with quality lighting and background music in a simple but classic oriental setting, resulting in a comfortable and enjoyable gathering place for guests.

Karma has a knack for presenting hand-crafted entrees using the freshest seafood and produce purchased daily to insure quality. The large menu offers quite a selection and caters to both sushi and traditional oriental food lovers. It offers traditional main plates like General Gao's Chicken, Almond and Cashew Chicken, Beef with Broccoli, Shanghai Boneless Duck, and Sizzling Mongolian Beef to rice and noodle plates, vegetable plates, soups, salads and starters. It then combines the more upscale unique sushi plates, soups, salads entrees using the freshest Tuna, Salmon, Yellowtail, Sea Scallops. The seafood is then combined with fresh asparagus, cucumber, and citrus fruits to create a memorable dining experience leaving guests satisfied and wanting to return. All Karma entrees are crafted with care and flair

Karma will serve lunch and dinner and will be open everyday of the year. Its unique Fusion Cuisine, exquisite sushi, and moderate pricing appeal to families, young professionals, white collar and blue collar workers and everyone who loves oriental food. The eclectic sushi selections that make up Karma's menu are a draw to guests from all demographics. Karma will feature a full liquor license.
